		EXCEL to Assistant Prof. LIU Jing by E-mail
English Edition	December-January	Reports will be English-edited by a native speaker.
Deadline for Submitting Feb. 5, 2016 (Fri.)		Each group leader must send a final draft with corrections made the Final OFW Report.	by 17:00. to Assistant Prof. LIU Jing in soft copies both in Word and PD files.
Editing and Sending off	Mar. 15, 2015

2. Credits

Those who have successfully completed the course by attending lectures, actively participating in research activities, and producing the final output of quality will be given:

2 credits for the preparatory seminar; and

2 credits for the overseas fieldwork in the Philippines*

(*Only those who plan to go for overseas fieldwork must complete both the preparatory seminar and the fieldwork to receive four credits.)

3. Participation Fee

This year, the airfare will be shouldered by Campus ASEAN Project and other sources of fund. Participants will be asked to pay only for accommodation fees, miscellaneous costs such as souvenirs, parties, and other personal expenses. Personal expenses here include food, laundry, weekend excursions, visa applications, and travel insurance, etc. Detailed information regarding the method of payment will be given in the OFW website after announcing the names of participants.

4. Number of Participants

20 participants at maximum (5 students per WG)

5. Selection of Participants and Grouping:

If the number of applicants exceeds 20, we may need to select participants by giving the first priority to GSID M1 students, and then determine the rest by examining the reasons for application written in the application form. If the number of M1 applicants already exceeds 20, the participants will be selected in the same manner. Grouping will be made in consideration to the applicant's preference for a particular working group as expressed in the application form. However, not all may be allocated to the group of their first choice. The final decision for grouping rests with the OFW Committee.

6. Visa

Some international students are required to obtain visa before departure available at the Philippine Consulate General in Osaka, Japan. (http://osakapcg.dfa.gov.ph/index.php/temporary-visitor-s-visa-for-non-japanese-nationals). The cost for the visa is 4,450 Yen (With participant's own responsibility). For those who need to apply for the visa, please obtain one at least one month before your departure. Please make sure that your passport is more than 6 months before the expiration date. Please submit a copy of your VISA to Assistant Prof. LIU Jing by Jul.29, 2015.

7. Other Requirements for Participating in OFW

a) Travel Insurance (With participant's own responsibility).

All participants must buy travel insurance for participating in OFW. A copy of the insurance policy should be submitted to Assistant Prof. Jing Liu by Jul. 29, 2015. Insurance attached to a credit card is NOT accepted. The minimum coverage of the travel insurance is set as follows:

- Death due to sickness 30 million yen;
- Death due to accidents 30 million yen;
- Medical expenses due to sickness 10 million yen;
- Medical expenses due to accidents 10 million yen; and
- Rescue expenses 10 million yen.

b) Written Pledge

All participants must sign a written pledge regarding limited liabilities of GSID and safety precautions you should take for participating in OFW. The format will be uploaded in due course. The written pledge should be submitted to Assistant Prof. LIU Jing by Jun.24, 2015, 17:00.
